PRAYING FOR THE WORLD In Haiti, President Jovenel Moïse has been killed by armed men in his home. The country has been hit by a wave of violence, political instability and protests in recent months. Pray for an end to the violence; for wisdom for all those in leadership; for comfort to those who are grieving and provision for Aid agencies and churches to respond to those in need.

Parish Notes

Items for the bulletin to the Parish Office by midday Wednesday please

WELCOME AND THANK YOU to our visiting priests this week.

TIME OFF Fr Mark is now taking a summer break, so will not be available until Sun 25th July.

THANK YOU Jan Toye sends thanks for all the messages, cards and calls after the loss of her mum, they were all such a comfort.

MU DIARY DATE On Monday August 9th there will be a Mary Sumner anniversary service in All Saints Barry @ 2.30pm. We shall need to give in numbers nearer the date, so please watch the bulletin for further notices.

MU MEMBER BETTY WILSON has had a fall and damaged her back, so she is in the Heath Hospital at the moment. Please keep her in your thoughts and prayers.

PENARTH OPEN GARDENS TRAIL is on Sat 24th July 10am-6pm and Sunday 25th July 11am-5pm. This is the 25th year for this event and is still very popular.
